Membership of Council builds a stronger voice for Arab-Australians. Membership strengthens our mandate in advocating on matters of interest to the community and gives us direction in responding to issues. In being a member of Council you are also participating in building unity and collaboration across the community.

Membership benefits include:

- Access to information, resources and networks
- Opportunities to contribute in social policy discussions and development
- Access to free Community Organising training
- Participation in specific external projects in which Council is involved
- Participation and contribution to the development of campaigns, fundraisers, major events and activities
- Regular updates about issues of importance to the community
- The right to vote at general meetings and/or to run for elections to Council's Board of Management
- Discounted rates on a range of Council's ticketed events, services and products.

Categories of Membership as outlined in clause 5 of Council's constitution

(1) Financial Membership

- (i) Individual members - This category entitles a person to be a member enjoying all rights and obligations as provided in the Constitution, and in other rules that may be set by the Council;
- (ii) Organisational members - This category entitles organisations or bodies to nominate one person as their delegate. This person will enjoy all rights of an individual financial member.

(2) Associate Membership

This category entitles a member - a person, a body or an organisation to enjoy all rights provided for in the Constitution except voting, nominating, be nominated or seconding.

(3) Honorary Membership

This category entitles a person, a body or an organisation who in the view of the Board of Management; by reason of culture, qualification, social commitment and ability will help, assist the Council achieving its aims and objectives. This category will grant the holder of such membership all rights except voting, nominating, be nominated or seconding.

IMPORTANT NOTE: As per clause 6.3 of the constitution, In these first three months of membership a new member cannot vote, move or second at a general meeting and cannot nominate or be nominated for a position on the Board. After this period, such a member becomes a financial member.
